Entries were a bit slow coming in and I was at Team World and several pitchers from Illinois and the Beloit club signed up to help make our tournament a success.

Jesse Garza is getting his game back and shot 12% over his entering average to win class B. Randy White had a superb day on his way to the class C title. Al Huizenga did an excellent job in class A. Al lost his first game of the day to Mark Mauthe and then was clean the rest of the day including clutch victories of one point, two points, and four points. Al said this was his first class A tournament title. Congratulations Al!

Thanks to all the pitchers for coming, to the Country Kitchen of Platteville for the gift certificates, to Sheiran Austin for fixing some food for us, and to Matt Lee for doing the statistics.
